LGBT Center Anniversary Party to Also Mark 50 Years of Gay Pride
By Savannah Pride

On June 28, Savannah Pride, First City Network and the City of Savannah will host a free community block party to celebrate the 50th Anniversary of the Stonewall Uprising and the second anniversary of the Savannah LGBT Center. This event commemorates the spark that lit the LGBT+ civil rights movement and is the genesis of Pride celebrations across the world.

To honor the legacy of Stonewall and celebrate our local LGBT accomplishments, the event will include an outdoor screening of “Death and Life of Marsha P. Johnson”, an exhibit of 20 LGBT history panels on loan from One Archive, drag shows and other entertainment, a protest sign craft station led by Jeffrey’s Place (LGBT Youth support group), Stonewall OutLoud Recording Studio, a StoryCorps project in partnership with NPR, the art gallery featuring local LGBT artists, HIV testing, mental health counseling and more!

Union Mission Volunteer Effort a Huge Success!
By Jamie Maury

Bravo! It got painted and it got planted by 42 volunteers over three Saturdays at Union Mission’s Grace House homeless shelter in downtown Savannah. The two-story building and garden wall are now fresh and white. The narrow plant bed running 150 feet along the building’s side was cleared of weeds and rotting timbers and replanted with hollies, boxwood, podocarpus, flax, and rosemary. New timbers framed this plant bed, 500 pounds of cow manure enrich the soil, and 55 bags of pine bark nuggets dress the finished beds. Thanks to Thomas and Bob and Lynn & Marsha with pickup trucks for hauling away four loads of debris. Big thanks to Lynn and Che-

Chair’s Report
By Chris Apple

Boons, portents, and something radical...

We’ve had what I feel comfortable saying are both the best, and the worst, of times at the Savannah LGBT Center over the past 6 months. Our doors are open, our attendance numbers are up, community members are getting the help that they need, and we have reduced the cost of providing mental health services through generous volunteer contributions. More recently, we have appointed four new FCN Directors who have committed, collectively, to raise $6,000 over the next 6 months towards funding Center operations. A few recent fundraising activities have also helped us to pay operating expenses without decreasing the Center’s reserve fund substantially.

Our monthly expenses will increase appreciably in July 2019. Over roughly the past 18 months, the Center’s reserve fund has decreased in value from 18 to 11 months of operating expenses. We still have two FCN Director spots that we must fill with people interested in raising funds for the Center. Simple math is enough to prove that filling those two remaining FCN Director spots will not sufficiently replenish the Center’s reserve fund to support hiring a paid Center Director. Raising funds sufficient to ensure the sustainability of the Center, from either individuals or organizations, requires a paid Center Director.

FCN, Savannah PRIDE, and the Center Committee will begin exploring radical changes to our fundraising approach for the Center over the next two months. If we do not have a plan in place between now and then to substantially increase our capability and capacity to collectively raise funds for the Center, we will all be faced with the possibility of answering difficult questions about it’s future.

As always, your donations will help.

May Social a Fun Part of Mermaid Fest

The May Social was held at Fannie’s restaurant on Tybee Island, in conjunction with Savannah Pride’s Mermaid Fest. This social chartered new water for FCN by creating earlier and longer hours for people to gather. There may have been a small group of attendees, but those who could make it enjoyed the change of pace. Several mermaids were spotted as well as a tornado warning to add a bit of drama!

Hats off to the staff at Fannie’s for welcoming our group with open arms, and for everyone who turned out to volunteer or just enjoy time with friends new and old. Thank you Savannah Pride!

June Social a Celebration of Good Times

“I’ve been to several of these,” said an attendee at the June Social, “they were business-like; this one was a PARTY!”

And a party it was, with more than 120+ gathered to eat, drink, laugh, and celebrate the birthday of Angel and the 50th wedding anniversary of Gus and Dale. Old-timers, first-timers, straight allies, and several that we had wondered about mixed and mingled in the lovely south-side villa of Melvin and Billy, sharing stories and enjoying cake and assorted cold beverages.

Several of the attendees commented that this event was as good as it gets in gay Savannah; beautiful weather, lovely neighborhood, and lots of fun people to meet, greet, and hug.

If you have been wanting to host a Social, contact a member of the board or call The LGBT Center, 304-LGBT, and leave a message.

FCN Board Announces Four New Members

By Jon Kesler

The FCN Board is excited to welcome four new members, Clint Decker, Tim Morneau, Renee Penrose, and Fred Schul-er. In a departure from previous years, the Board now appoints members, all with staggered terms. The candidates are nominated by our nominating committee, vetted, then voted on by the Board. These members also have a fundraising mandate, which is crucially important for those serving on non-profit boards. Welcome, new board members!

Editor’s Note: Bios and photos of the new faces on the FCN Board will be published soon in the Network News.

Happenings at or for The Center

“The Legend of Georgia McBride” by Savannah Repertory Theater held April 28, with a portion of each ticket sold donated to The Center, netting 450 dollars.

The “If Only” art exhibit opening reception was held June 7, featuring 17 new works of paper cut paradoxical paradises by Peter Erwin Roberts, who is also curator of the LGBT Center art gallery. Gallery profits from shows are donated to the Center, and are ongoing.

Contact Jim Adams jima313@aol.com for more info about the latest books to be featured with the Book Club that meets at the LGBT Center. Recently featured were My Life as a Goddess by Guy Branum, a stand-up comedian, and political commentator.

Gift-in-kind Donations to The Center

Mike Duncan donated ten cases of water to the Center--thanks, Mike!

Making a Difference

If you ever doubt your ability to make a difference, read the message received recently...we recently helped a LGBT family in crisis save their dog. Their gratitude is exemplified by their email afterward saying "Hi, Just donated $100 as a thank you for all your help dealing with my friend's dog! You saved them both! Please thank everyone involved. I’m so thankful for our LGBTQ community around the world - we take care of each other in such important and powerful ways."

And if you ever doubt your worth as volunteers, think about a call we received at The Center. A young college student hesitantly and with great fear came out to her parents - the father promptly cut off all funding for the college education...what am I gonna do? Having The Center as an option means referrals, counseling, and the chance to network with others who have suffered thru similar situations. Thanks for being caring, loving people.

Announcements

-we need our GREAT members and volunteers for the big anniversary party on June 28--both your help and attendance!

-Family Guys & Gals Bowling group will take a summer break and meet again beginning in September.

-the piano at the Center is tuned and ready for you to play--come by any day and charm us with your musical selections.

-Congratulations to Savannah PRIDE for a successful Mermaid Fest on Tybee in May!

New Donation Recognition

In an effort to spark new donations and honor those who are continuing to give, we have changed the way we will be displaying our donation recognition in the Network News. We will be showing only donations for the fiscal year (October to September). In doing so, any multiple donations or change in Collective giving will be noted with the month(s) that each level was achieved.

In no way does this downplay the level of significance or gratitude we have for those who have donated in the past and we will continue to display those names on the wall at The Center.

Thank you to all who have donated and made The Center a reality!

2019 SUMMER PREACHING SERIES
ASBURY MEMORIAL CHURCH – 11:15 AM SUNDAYS

JULY 7 – Rev. Danny Beam
Rev. Danny Beam attended Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in Fort Worth, Texas, did graduate studies in theology through Southeastern BTS, and completed 2 years of Greek through New Orleans BTS. He was ordained in 1981, has served churches in the Southern Baptist Convention, and was a consultant with the Georgia Baptist Convention. He is a Licensed Professional Counselor and has a Master Addictions Counselor license through NADAC. Today he works as an embedded Military Family Life Counselor with the 3rd Combat Aviation Battalion at Hunter AAF in Savannah. Danny joined Asbury Memorial in 2001 and married Barbara Jean Lackey Beam in 2009. He has two adult children and is soon to welcome his fifth grandchild. John Ashley Beam, his late oldest grandson, is with us in spirit.

JULY 14 – Rev. Lesley Brogan
Rev. Lesley Brogan graduated from Candler School of Theology at Emory and is an ordained minister in the United Church of Christ. She works at Children’s Healthcare of Atlanta with Family Experience. Lesley was born and raised in Mattoon, Illinois, a middle daughter of a middle daughter. She and her partner, Linda Ellis, live in Decatur, GA, and are moms to Ray Ellis’ and Randy Canady’s favorite nephews, John Brogan and Sam.

JULY 21 – Rev. Nathan Godley
Rev. Nathan Godley was born in Savannah and was an active member and leader at Epworth United Methodist Church. After graduating from Armstrong State University, he attended the Candler School of Theology at Emory University in Atlanta. He serves a variety of churches in the South Georgia UMC Conference, including Epworth United Methodist Church and White Bluff United Methodist Church in Savannah. After retiring, Nathan and his wife, Patty, bought the 17Hundred90 Inn and Restaurant in historic downtown Savannah, which their son Patrick now manages.

JULY 28 – Rev. Dr. Dawn Chesser
The Rev. Dr. Dawn Chesser is an ordained elder in the Holston Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church. Dawn grew up in Arkansas but moved to Northern Illinois to attend Garrett-Evangelical Theological Seminary. She served for nineteen years in the Chicago metropolitan area. She has led congregations ranging from urban to suburban to rural, large, medium, and small, in varied worship styles. While completing her PhD in liturgical studies, she taught at Garrett-Evangelical Theological Seminary, Candler School of Theology, and Tennessee Wesleyan College. Dawn served as the Director of Preaching Ministries for the General Board of Discipleship in Nashville, Tennessee, for five years. She is currently the Senior Associate Pastor at Church Street United Methodist Church in Knoxville, Tennessee. She and her husband, Scott Danforth, live in Knoxville.

AUGUST 4 – Rabbi Robert Haas
Rabbi Robert Haas, a native of McAllen, Texas, became the 34th spiritual leader of Congregation Mickve Israel in Savannah, Georgia in 2012. After receiving his B.S. from the University of Texas at Austin, he began his first career as an elementary school teacher. He then studied at Hebrew Union College in Jerusalem and Los Angeles, where he received his master’s degree and Rabbinical Ordination. He served as an associate rabbi at both Temple Shalom in Dallas, Texas, and Congregation Emuna in Houston, Texas. He then spent a year volunteering in Africa with American Jewish World Service. He is married to April, and he and his wife have a beautiful daughter named Amira.

AUGUST 11 – Rev. Claire Marich
Rev. Claire Harrison Marich is a native Chicagoan and an ordained deacon in the Northern Illinois Conference. She has spent most of her ministry in professional healthcare chaplaincy, serving both in level 1 trauma hospitals and in hospice settings. She left a career in business consulting to pursue a vocation in chaplaincy, getting a master’s degree in Pastoral Care and Counseling from Garrett-Evangelical Theological Seminary. She has undergraduate degrees in Political Science and English from Loyola University of Chicago, along with a Master’s in Science in Political Science in Revolution and Terrorism and African Studies from Northwestern University. Claire and her spouse, John, have been members of Asbury Memorial for the last two years.

AUGUST 18 – Chelsea Hester, M.A.
Chelsea Hester, a Savannah native, has a master’s degree in Mindfulness-based Counseling Psychology from Naropa University in Boulder, Colorado. While completing her studies in clinical mental health counseling, Chelsea worked as a play therapist and eating disorder support group facilitator. She now blends her expertise in spirituality, mindfulness, and psychology into her work as a case manager for a local non-profit in Greenville, South Carolina, while also working as a Food and Body Image coach, speaker, and educator. Chelsea stands strong as an ally in the body diversity and body acceptance movement and is honored to bring awareness and conversation to this topic whenever possible. Currently residing in Greenville, South Carolina, Chelsea is thrilled to return to her home church of Asbury Memorial for a morning of worship, celebration, and thoughtful conversation.

Presentation on Homosexuality and The Bible

The LGBT Center will host an informative presentation on July 8 from 7 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. entitled “What the Bible Really Says About Homosexuality”.

Pastor Steve Hilgeman will present several reasons how the Bible has been misrepresented in the area of homosexuality. As Pastor Hilgeman proclaims, “homosexuality is not a sin; there is no text in the Christian scriptures that states it is!” Hilgeman will explore both the texts from the Old and New Testaments which are frequently used to associate homosexuality with “an abomination to God” and how the word “unnatural” has been used by uneducated preachers to harm and to condemn the LGBTQ community.

Pastor Steve has been leading worship at the Lutheran Church of the Redeemer for over five years in Savannah. He was educated at Trinity Lutheran Seminary in Ohio and holds an additional Master’s Degree in Educational Counseling. He spent much of his career working with persons with mental and physical disabilities, and is an experienced conference presenter and staff trainer.
